

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Plan for a Cessation of MADOCA Real-time Product Streaming

Thank you for your support and interest in MADOCA real-time product.

We are planning to cease our MADOCA real-time product streaming by the end of next financial year, March 2021. For your continuing use of a real-time product, please consider using the streaming service which has already been provided by GPAS, Global Positioning Augmentation Service Corporation (<https://www.gpas.co.jp/>).

The GPAS's β version product and our product will be streamed in parallel for a while, but JAXA's MADOCA real-time product streaming will be ceased after they start the official services. The schedule for the cessation is being planned as shown below.
